

-FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE-

Contact: Roz Long
RGL Marketing for the Arts, Inc.
630.279.0035

Arte at Nite: Food for Life Featuring Over 50 Elmhurst Destinations in Support of United Community Concerns Association

ELMHURST, IL.—The Art of giving back is on the rise in the city of Elmhurst. Arte at Nite: Food for Life An Evening of Art and Sharing sponsored by David S. Pezen, M.D.; Board Certified Dermatologist in Elmhurst, is hosting their First Annual Art Venue in conjunction with the United Community Concerns Association (who donated food and food certificates to over 240 families in Elmhurst this past year). Local art galleries, specialty shops, restaurants, Elmhurst Public Library, Elmhurst College, and Elmhurst Art Museum will welcome patrons with special events on Friday November 6. Local businesses will donate 10% of proceeds to the United Community Concerns Association. There will be local destinations for non-perishable food donations.

Arte at Nite: Food for Life will be held from 6-9pm (participant hours will vary) on Friday evening November 6th. Here are some highlights:

- Elmhurst Public Library hosting the Elmhurst Artists' Guild artwork.
- Elmhurst Art Museum exhibition. Free Admission with Food Donation.
- Elmhurst Artists' Guild Gallery exhibiting Little City art collection.
- Elmhurst College Art Collection at A.C. Buehler Library.
- Elmhurst College Gallery- Barbara A. Kieft Accelerator Art Space.
- Fitz's Lanes will feature live jazz and the dueling pianos.
- Fitz's Pub will feature employee art work on display and DJ music.
- Glitch Gallery will be hosting the art work of local artists.
- Flight 112 will host live music by local musician Scottie Long.
- Park Place Interiors will be exhibiting the art work of Michael Brown.
- Elijah's Specialty Coffee and Tea will host live music and art for sale.
- Exiner Art Studio will be featuring local artists and one of a kind jewelry.
- Litavsky Pottery Studio will be selling her exclusive line of pottery.
- Uptown Shop will be hosting a Patricia Locke Trunk Show.
- Camden Boutique will feature jewelry designer Susan Elizabeth.
- Stop by many of the Elmhurst restaurants for dining.

For further information on Arte at Nite: Food for Life, please contact roz@rglmarketingforthearts.com or visit rglmarketingforthearts.com